

VTEQ have been involved in the South African Private Vehicle Inspection industry from 1997 and VTEQ has opened many testing stations across South Africa with the aim of improving the quality of vehicles on the road, providing stations that meet the highest quality standards and ultimately saving lives on our roads.

VTEQ is the only BBBEE Level 5 owned supplier company in South Africa.

VTEQ South Africa as a Partner

VTEQ has 20 years of experience in the industry

VTEQ has the most advanced equipment satisfying world industry standards and our equipment is used on four continents across the globe.

Modular Design allows for easy upgrading to meet changing standards

VTEQ has many incentive schemes to help existing small businesses

VTEQ has never been denied opening a Testing Station in South Africa

VTEQ has a committed team to providing excellent services to all our customers.

In conclusion we help setup sustainable and profitable businesses with the aim of getting dedicated strategic partners that share a common vision.